

Church Expansion

Food For The Poor understands the importance of sharing the Gospel's Good News. We know we must address the physical needs of those in need, while also sharing a message of Christ's love for them and all people. We are expanding our partnerships with Evangelical congregations both here and in the developing world. We look forward to exploring how we may be able to join hands in mission with your church.