

Become a Clergy Speaker

Do you feel called to serve the poorest of our brothers and sisters? Prayerfully consider joining our family of speakers, a diverse group of clergy located throughout the United States. Our speakers — oftentimes retired pastors or priests looking for ways to engage in the Lord’s work in a new chapter — travel around the country, visiting churches and sharing information about our mission. Through heartfelt homilies, these clergy inspire congregations to contribute to our life-changing and hope-giving work.

“My trips with Food for the Poor have convinced me of the great need for help in these Caribbean countries, as well as convincing me of the Christian commitment and expertise of Food for the Poor to bring help to the poorest of the poor. I love encouraging my fellow Lutherans...to care not only for those close to them and those in this country but also to see the opportunity to care for the poor of countries like Haiti.“

-Pastor Bob Weinhold, FFTP Speaker
