

Raise Awareness

Will you help us spread the word? You can contribute to our mission by including information about Food For The Poor in your church bulletin, newsletter, social media posts, and/or brochure distribution area. Our Communication Team is ready to assist you with providing the content and collateral that works for you. Just let us know how much space you can share and we will customize an informational package just for you!